

MEET THE WILSONS

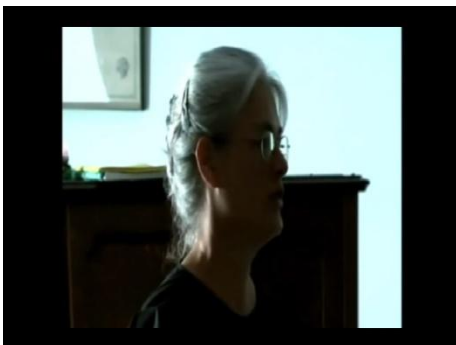

The current president of the General Conference of SDAs is Ted Wilson who was reelected to a second term in 2015. Some could be heard praising the decision. But do they know what he and his father have done to the three angels' messages?

"Seventh-day Adventists have been given a work of the most solemn import—the proclamation of the first, second, and third angels messages. There is no other work of so great importance. They are to allow nothing else to absorb their attention." 9T 19

Ted's father was Neil C. Wilson, who as the GC vice president when he made this statement under oath in a court hearing: "Although it is true that there was a period in the life of the Seventh-day Adventist Church when the denomination took a distinctly anti-Roman Catholic viewpoint, and the term 'hierarchy' was used in a pejorative sense to refer to the papal form of church governance, that attitude on the church's part was nothing more than a manifestation of widespread anti-popery among conservative Protestant denominations in the early part of this century and the latter part of the last, and which has now been consigned to the historical trash heap so far as the Seventh-day Adventist Church is concerned." EEOC vs PPPA and GC, Civil Case #74-2025 CBR (1975).

So Ted's father, Neil, hated the spreading of truth about the great whore of Babylon, and instead wanted to protect the papacy from identification. He was later voted in as president. Neil wanted the world to "wonder after the beast." Neil also described the Adventist conference: "...there is another universal and truly catholic organization, the Seventh-day Adventist Church." Adventist Review, March 5, 1981, p 3.

On YouTube you can find a video titled, "Bill Hughes - Ted Wilson Saint or Snake" by Bill Hughes, who himself was removed from conference work because he refused to stop preaching the three angels' messages in public. Three conference men gave him the ultimatum with his wife present, but Bill refused to follow their worldly orders. Fast forward to 1:08 into the video and you will hear from Melanie who said she and her husband were "cast out of the SDA church" 19.5 years ago for passing out The Great Controversy. Melanie stated, "I will say this whether I am on camera or not. There was a home school group that was funded by the government. I worked for them when I was 18 for half a year, packing books. They were started and funded by the government because in the 70's a lot of people said the school system is bad and they started home schooling. Then the government said, "we are losing track of all these children. We have to keep a lid on these children. We have to train the next generation." So they paid this man who was on the board of education for the USA, his name was Dr. Raymond Moore [gasps]. My aunt worked for him for years. I went to work for him when I was 18. On that board was Ted Wilson's father [Neil]. He spent a lot of time with my aunt, and told her "I am a 33rd degree Mason." [gasps] She swore me to secrecy some 10-12 years ago about this but God's people have to know, and I am not afraid to die for telling you, because people, we need to wake up and realize there have been a lot of foxes in the henhouse for a longtime, but God says the light will shine...."

At first hearing, most SDAs will say this is impossible. So we searched the Internet for some type of confirmation that Neil was in fact a Mason. Were others talking about it, is there a photo, etc? Well, we found it. In the book Codex Magica, by Texe Marrs, p. 174, it has a photo of Neil. The caption reads, "Neal Wilson, president of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists (left) exchanges an indisputable (in my opinion) Masonic handshake with Konstantin Kharchev, the Soviet Union's Chairman of the Ministry of Religious Affairs. The occasion was a socialist-sponsored environmental conclave, called the International Forum for a Non-nuclear World and the Survival of Humanity, February 13-15, 1987." How many other GC presidents are pictured in a book featuring a Masonic handshake? None.

In the Old Testament we read of accounts where God ordered entire nations and peoples destroyed because of their idolatry and evil ways, including women and children. Why children? Because the children follow the ways of their parents. Is Ted Wilson any different? Should we expect Ted to be involved in Masonry? If you are a Mason and an SDA leader, you would operate in stealth mode, acting like a great SDA in front of SDAs, then destroying our religion behind the scenes and when contacting the world. Has Ted operated in this fashion?

Immediately after coming into office Ted gave a glowing speech in Atlanta and had the group in tears of joy that he would bring us into the promise land. Then he declared that we were going to spread The Great Controversy across the land. Many were excited. I was amazed. Was he really going to do this great thing??? Well, Ted had The Great Controversy re-written into a simplistic 90 page booklet called The Great Hope, AND REMOVED REFERENCES TO THE DECEPTIONS OF THE PAPACY. Why did he choose to remove the most important information that the world needs to hear? That would be the information you would leave in, not remove it in this last hour of earth's history. Ted has an agenda. Is it to spread the truth, or to protect the papacy? Since distributing the books, he is declaring that millions of The Great Controversy have been distributed around the world. That is false. He is deceiving people. They also have plans to re-write all of EGW books.

Some have praised Ted for being against Spiritual Formation, but he did not say that in his inaugural speech. He said "Stay away from non-biblical spiritual disciplines or methods of spiritual formation...Look within the SDA church." He was on the Int'l Board of Ministerial & Theological Education in 2001, when it voted to start professional training of pastors and theologians in "religious formation or spiritual formation." Adventist.org Feb. 3, 2004

Recently he met with the head of the UN, as mentioned in the Review, "United Nations Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon expressed concerns about growing religious intolerance worldwide during a private meeting with Adventist Church leader Ted N.C. Wilson..."

Friends, we have to support the truth that has to be given to the world. The conference is not doing it. Tony Palmer said the protest has ended. A protest cannot be heard from the conference who has billions of dollars. We have to support independent ministries that will give a warning message to this deceived world.
